career in Richmond.

Alleged Sale of the Clover Leaf. The Cieveland, O., Leader says this morning: "It is conceded in authoritative circles that the report of the sale of the Clover Leaf road to the Vanderbilt interests is based on fact. The further understanding now is that the road, when fulacquired, will be turned over to the Michigan Central to operate, thus giving that line a southeastern outlet and enabling it to compete with the Wabash. which has become a vigorous factor in the Eastern field. The Clover Leaf has 450 miles of track, with an aggregate liability of $26,000,000." Personal, Local and General Notes. In the month of May the Indiana Car Service Association handled 31.192 cars, with an average detention of 1.60 day. Charles W. Leavitt, jr., has been appoint-

THE WIFE IS GRANTED DECREE AND SUM OF $50,000 ALIMONY.

which he intends to retain until he can sell | Husband and Wife Shed Tears in and Good-Byes

Late yesterday evening Judge James M. Leathers, of the Superior Court, granted a divorce to Amelia G. Scholz from her husband, Frederick J. Scholz. In addition to the decree Mrs. Scholz was given $50,000 alimony. The whole proceedings were by agreement, Mr. Scholz not contesting the suit and paying all the costs, including the attorneys' fees and alimony, without protest. The case was to have been heard lock, and it locks automatically. Work at 5 o'clock, but Scholz was not in the can be done much faster with this than courtroom, and the hearing was postponed until he was summoned by the sheriff. The hearing was brief, only a few witnesses, including Mrs. Scholz, taking the stand. Two of these witnesses, Captain Lemcke and Otto Frenzel, merely testified as to the residence of the parties. Deputy fends divorce suits in Judge Leathers's court, sat with Henry Spaan, Scholz's attorney, and William A. Ketcham represented Mrs. Scholz. Scholz did not take the stand in answer to charges of cruel on the B. & O. Colonel Moody has done | treatment, and Prosecutor Roemler did the little cross questioning that was done. The evidence concluded with Mrs. Scholz's testimony, which was brief, and Judge Leathers said. "Mr. Clerk, you may enter up a decree.

Mrs. Scholz frequently cried during the trial, and after she left the witness stand and the decree was granted she broke down. Scholz walked over to her and bid her good-bye, and then himself began to weep. After his wife had left the courtroom he broke down completely, cried like a child, and said: "I have done nothing

Trip to Springfield Deferred.

Secretary of State Hunt and Clerk Hinshaw did not go to Springfield, Ill., yesterday as expected, owing to the receipt of a telegram from Secretary of State Rose, of that State, requesting them to defer their visit until to-morrow. "We are not going over there so much to get a list of outside corporations that have not complied with the foreign incorporation law passed by the last Legislature," said Mr. Hunt. "as to find out what method of procedure Secretary Rose adopts in getting after such corporations. Illinois has a foreign incorporation law, upon which our statute is modeled, and Mr. Rose was secretary of state when their law was enacted by the Legislature. He is, therefore, likely to have some valuable suggestions
